

what can i do in the commercial vehicle industry?

The truck and trailer industry is essential to the running of the country and requires skilled specialists in the areas of service, repair, modification and body manufacture.

You will learn:

- to build heavy vehicle bodies to customer requirements
- welding and the fabrication of components
- chassis and trailer modification
- to work from plans and think outside the box
- to repair tankers, waste disposal and recycling vehicles.

