

what does an automotive sales person do?

Automotive Sales professionals sell luxury vehicles, new and used cars, recreational or commercial vehicles and more.

You will learn to:

- promote products and services
- develop product knowledge
- identify and plan sales prospects
- build client relationships and business networks.

